

WIFE LOVED DOGS

And Husband Objected Having Them in Bed

The alleged cruelty of a husband to his wife was exploited in a very dramatic manner in police court this morning, when Mrs. Laura Kirschner testified against her husband, Charles G. Kirschner, whom she had brought before the court on a complaint charging him with threatening her. In a brief voice and with emphasis on what she considered the vital points of her testimony, she told of the alleged abuse she had undergone. She was emotional, to say the least, and in manner in which she offered her testimony was out of the common.

Mrs. Kirschner testified that on or about the first of May she went into the cellar where her husband was taking some wine out of a closet. She objected to him keeping the wine locked up, feeling that she was entitled to her share of it. "We had a few words," said Mrs. Kirschner, "and raising one of the bottles above his head he said I will brain you. He grabbed me by the arm and threw me the length of the cellar."

"Three weeks ago he said he would kill me."

"A short time ago he cruelly murdered my little pet dog. He took the dog into the cellar and dashed its brains out. That nearly broke my heart."

Mr. Kirschner denied that he had ever struck or threatened to do his wife bodily harm. He said he had been married for eight years and had been unhappy for seven.

The cause of the trouble with his wife, he said, was that she took her six dogs to bed with her and ate dog bread and served it to the dogs.

Judge Pickman found Kirschner guilty and imposed a fine of $180, the costs of court, and held him under $100 bonds to keep the peace for six months. He appealed. D. J. Donahue appeared for Mrs. Kirschner while J. J. McDonnell represented Mr. Kirschner.

Drunk Offenders.

Patrick Kelley, charged with drunkenness, was given a suspended sentence to the state farm. Louis H. Cheney, however, was less fortunate for he received a direct sentence to that institution.

John P. Corcoran, who was also in for drunkenness, was first fined $6. After two police officers testified the $6 fine was withdrawn and he was sentenced to 20 days in jail.

Acting Supt. Welch told the court the number of times that Corcoran had been arrested and the full sentence was withdrawn and he was sentenced to the state farm.

John Maguire was fined $6 and three first offenders were fined $2 each.

WILDEST EXCESSES

Being Committed by the Insurgents in Spain

Government Troops Routed at Melilla by the Moors—The Populace in Wildest Indignation—Even the Women Fight Like Demons—Churches and Convents Burned by Furious Mobs

CERRETE, France, Spanish Frontier. July 29.—All reports received here from Spain confirm the terrible fate of the women throughout Catalonia. At Barcelona they fought behind the barricades with the men, begging them to fight to the death. Everywhere they resisted soldiers by gentlemen for recruits for the army, hating the doors of the houses and being at the soldiers from the windows. At Cava de lasavas the population surrounded and dispersed the civil guard and locked up the officials in the barracks. Not only at Barcelona but throughout the province church property was the specially to punish the Moors for their attack in Spanish lands.

SPANISH CRUISER

IS SHELLING THE HEIGHTS OF MOUNT GUERGA

MADRID, July 30.—Special dispatches received here shortly after noon from Melilla say that the Spanish cruiser Numancia is now shelling the heights of Mount Guerga which is swarming with Moors.

APPREHENSION IN PARIS

THE CAVALRY

IS GETTING THE UPPER HAND OF REVOLUTIONISTS

MADRID, July 30.—The news from Barcelona that the cavalry and troops have gained the upper hand against the main bodies of insurgents and that only isolated bands are holding out in the suburbs creates the greatest relief in official circles. The work of repression will rapidly be followed by the attack the Catalanian captives. Late last night it was officially announced that the cavalry entered into St. Martin's square, the principal band of revolutionists against whom the artillery opened fire. After fighting desperately and successfully for a hour the revolutionists were surrounded. Many of them were killed in the street and the survivors surrendered to the troops. No further reports of the progress of the repression of the revolutionists at Barcelona, but it is expected that blood flowed in every street. General Marina, commander of the Spanish forces in Barcelona, reports that there is no momentary quiet in the city, but he details the capture of the army at Melilla and expects that Spanish repression will be a commanding general has arrived at there.

HOTTEST DAY YET

Temperature Higher Than on Any July 30th in 60 Years

This is the hottest day of July in 60 years.

The thermometer stood at 84 in the shade in some places and 92 in others. In the families, parks, rooms, and some other workshops a temperature of 103 is reported.

If there was any breeze stirring it didn't get down town to this writing and with heat and humidity, the fact that the pavers have torn up the sidewalk square, letting a lot of gas escape, with the smoke and play have opened Prescott street. Merrimack square today was about the hottest district and most uncomfortable place that one would encounter in a day's travel.

It is expected that this weather will cause much illness and many heat prostrations of which there were quite a number yesterday and the day previous. The humidity seems even greater today than yesterday and unless a friendly shower comes on tonight Saturday may be even hotter. The weather man, however, says that tomorrow will be cooler.

Firemen Were Welcome

The firemen were welcome visitors in Little Canada last evening, yet there was some complaint because of water spilling into the houses. If the watering down process is to be continued it would be a good idea to send an advance agent along to inform the natives what is going to happen, for people will kick, you know.

There are places other than Little Canada, however, that would welcome the cooling influence of the firemen. Other congested districts such as William street, Davidson, Howe, Fenwick, Lakeview avenue, Bent's court and others too numerous to mention.

The sprinkling, the water wagon, don't get around as often as he might and the impression he makes is not very lasting. Where there is a lot of sand and dirt in the street the watering cart does not get out of sight before the water it left behind has been absorbed. The process of watering down the streets, by the firemen, is a good one and should extend to all congested districts throughout the city.

THE GLIDDEN TOUR

SALINAS, Kan., July 30.—On the last leg of their 2536.8 mile journey the Glidden tourists left Salinas this morning at 6:20 o'clock for Kansas City. They hope to reach Kansas City by 5 o'clock this afternoon. The distance is 212.8 miles. The route of today's run is through a part of Kansas that recently has been experiencing heavy rains, and the penalties are almost certain.

Yesterday's run did not take away any of the clean scores. Five cars each in the contest for the Gordon and Flower trophies still have perfect scores. Two Pierce-Arrows, the two Premier and a Marmon are perfect in the Glidden trophy class. Two Pierses, a Chalmers-Detroit, a Moline and the Levington are still perfect in the Howard trophy class.

Yesterday No. 55, Premier, incurred a penalty for repairing a spring. The White Steamer No. 14 was penalized four points for wiring a mudguard. The Jewett No. 11 lost 2.6 points for repairing a gasoline pipe. The Glidden No. 19, which broke a front axle Wednesday, was officially penalized 217 points last night.

DIED AT SEA

MAN WAS OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICITIS

NEW YORK, July 29.—In an effort to save the life of Robert Gibbons, fireman on the steamer Mauretania, which arrived today from Liverpool and Queenstown, an operation for appendicitis was performed at sea by Surgeon Jones of the Mauretania, as stated by Dr. Walter B. Jones and Francis T. Smith, both New York surgeons. Gibbons, however, did not survive and was buried at sea. The 2500 passengers raised a purse of $300 for the benefit of his widow.

A black and white cartoon illustration by Rogers. A man in a suit and bow tie is running frantically across a desert landscape. He has two thought bubbles: one on his left side saying "100° IN THE SHAD" and one on his right side saying "110° IN THE SUN". To his right, a speech bubble contains the text "I'm OUT! OH! DEAR! OH! DEAR!". In the background, a signpost points towards a large, smiling sun labeled "SOL". The sun has rays emanating from it. The ground is uneven and rocky, and there are some small bushes. The artist's signature "Rogers" is in the bottom left corner.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Brady, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

For a man addicted to sane, Harry K. Thaw shows considerable rationality. His brain storm is over. His outbreak of temper has subsided and will probably be duly restrained in the future even though he be set free without further ceremony.

THE SAFER PARACHUTE.

That performance of Dr. S. S. Stowell of Pittsfield in parachuting his balloon so that he dropped with it from a height of two miles is a more safe and sensible method of making a parachute jump than the usual way of cutting loose from the balloon and taking chances with a closed parachute that may not open.

TOURING ON THE AUTO COMPANIES.

These trips to Hartford, Buffalo and other cities made by Mayor Brown, Chief Hosmer and Purchasing Agent MacKenzie, were personally conducted by the mayor for the purpose of investigating automobiles suitable for fire service or other purposes. These tours do not cost the city anything directly, but they place those who accept the hospitality, if not the city, under an obligation to the entertaining company. The work of investigating the merits of fire apparatus belongs to Chief Hosmer and he can be safely entrusted to do the business honestly without any assistance or supervision.

SUBORDINATES SUFFER, MAGNATES GO FREE.

The sincerity or lack of sincerity on the part of the federal authorities will be shown in the prosecution of the sugar trust magnates for lying that has been admitted to the extent of $2,000,000 which has been paid over by the trust.

Indictments are pending against six of the directors not in connection with the lying operations but in connection with the absorption of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company. A couple of subordinate employees have been arrested for the larceny charge and they are the ones who will be punished if any convictions follow on that indictment. It is not usual to let a burglar or embezzler off when he returns the booty. Why make an exception in case of the sugar trust magnates? A jail sentence would have a good effect. The fact that few trust magnates have to suffer the legal penalty of their offenses shows that the federal government does not mean to press them on such charges.

The subordinates are punished for the offenses of the trust directors, the manipulators of high finance, stock speculators and the beneficiaries of an oppressive tariff.

THE LOCKS AND CANALS COMPANY VS. THE CITY.

The Locks and Canals company is placed in a very bad light before this community in relation to the land deal with Oliver Deziel on the banks of the canal on Pawtucket street. The company, as already explained, has sold a piece of land at the corner of Pawtucket and Moody streets for building purposes. The sale, we are informed, was negotiated by Alderman Badger, an official of the company. Being an alderman it was his duty to consider the interests of the city in the premises, but such an idea apparently was foreign to his purpose.

The land in question lying as it does in the angle formed by the junction of the two streets is so situated that if built upon the view of one of the most beautiful handseaps will be found anywhere will be seriously marred. All this has been freely discussed, but what we wish to remark is that the alderman who would so injure the good looks of a street or of a number of streets in order to benefit his company hardly deserves the confidence of the public.

When the advocates of the city beautiful find a city official practicing such sordid methods, it is no wonder they feel discouraged if not disgusted. The land, it is alleged, was offered to the city for park purposes. Perhaps it was; but if the city did not then see fit to accept it, that did not unjustly the Locks and Canals company in selling the land as a site for three big tenement blocks. And now as to the price, quoted at 25 cents a foot, the purchaser says he cannot afford to sell it to the city at less than a dollar a foot. He has a right to do as he pleases with the land having bought it. So, too, the Locks and Canals company has a right to do as it pleases with its land.

But it should not be forgotten that the city has some rights left and that its sovereignty has not been entirely absorbed by the Locks and Canals company. If the company hereafter is to show such disregard for the city's interests the city in turn may be more exacting with the company, and this to our mind would be the proper course to adopt in view of the circumstances. It is high time for the city council to improve the building laws that any outrage against the city beautiful or to the detriment of surrounding property will be prohibited. It seems that while the company can do a great deal for the city if it so desires and while it has recently favored the city in a grant of river front land on Ave street for a public park, yet in some respects its policy is leading to public spirit, narrow and short-sighted.

As for the gentleman who is to build upon the land in question, he is wholly within his rights, of course, but when he shall have completed his three elevenement blocks let us hope he will not object to an assessment of a dollar a foot for the land above as this is the price at which he offered to sell it to the city.

It may not be very long until the Locks and Canals company comes before the city as a petitioner for some privilege. The show will then be on the other foot and if it places the company any easily, again the reason why. Furthermore we do not believe that Alderman Badger has increased his popularity with the people of Lowell by negotiating a sale of land for building purposes that is generally admitted to be contrary to enlightened public policy. The fact is that Alderman Badger and the Locks and Canals company rather than Oliver Deziel will be held responsible in the public mind for the erection of buildings that will stand as a blot upon one of the most beautiful outlooks in our city and we might say in New England.

SEEN AND HEARD

A good time isn't strictly a success unless its memories are pleasant. There are many innocent pleasures which may be freely indulged in, and when you think of them in later days, you won't grit your teeth. A man may have a lot of real fun without being a milkop. But the kind of fun that is born of long cold Lotties is a different thing. You feel pretty gay while you are pouring fuel oil upon the troubled waters of your interior, but when the O-be joyful mood passes, after a long sleep, you are really surprised to note how tough you can feel, and how much you can hate yourself. The glad days don't last long, but the remorse clings to you like a leech. When you think of all the bad things you did and did, you are left inclined to take an axe and blow out your brains with it, but of course that will do no good. The worst of it is that you will never be able to forget it. You may forget a lot of agreeable things, but the disagreeable and humiliating things stick to your memory like cockleburrs to a hired man's whiskers. And you will never have as good an opinion of yourself again. Is that sort of a good time worth while? Exchange.

The Kennebec Journal pauses to remark that while sleeping with the window open doesn't lead to an early start, the benefits are doubtful when the air is laden with smoke and soot from passing railroad trains.

J. M. Barrie, author of "The Little Minister," "Peter Pan" and other novels and plays, was discussing clubs and club life at a dinner party the other day, and during the discussion told a story that throws a new light on the presumably delightful feature of bachelor existence. He says that he had been elected a member of one of London's fashionable clubs and had not permitted much time to elapse after being formally notified of the fact before he went to the club for dinner. "Of course," he said, "I first strolled around looking for the smoking room, thinking that I might find some of my friends there. I did not find the room, however, and I turned to the hall, where I accosted an old man with long white hair. He seemed to be counting as aimlessly about the place as I was, but I stopped him to ask if he could tell me where the smoking room was. His reply was most cordial. 'I shall be glad to direct you there,' he said, and he proceeded to do so. There was no one in the room, however, and so we returned to the hall, where I thanked the old man for his courtesy. 'No thanks are due me,' he replied courteously. And then he added, 'I should be very glad to have you take dinner with me.' 'But my dear sir,' I replied, 'you have been far too kind to me already. I can not think of imposing myself upon you in this manner.' The old man smiled. 'Impose yourself! Impose!' he exclaimed, eagerly, throwing his arms about me. 'Why, sir, it is no such thing. On the contrary, you will be doing me the greatest favor in the world by accepting my invitation. The fact is, sir, that I have belonged to this club for thirty years and you are the first member who has ever spoken to me.' Mr. Barrie adds that he immediately accepted the invitation and that he had a most pleasant evening with the old man.

TROUBLE COMING.

Mr. Roach: "This is an outrage. I bet my rival posted that."

HIS VIEWPOINT.

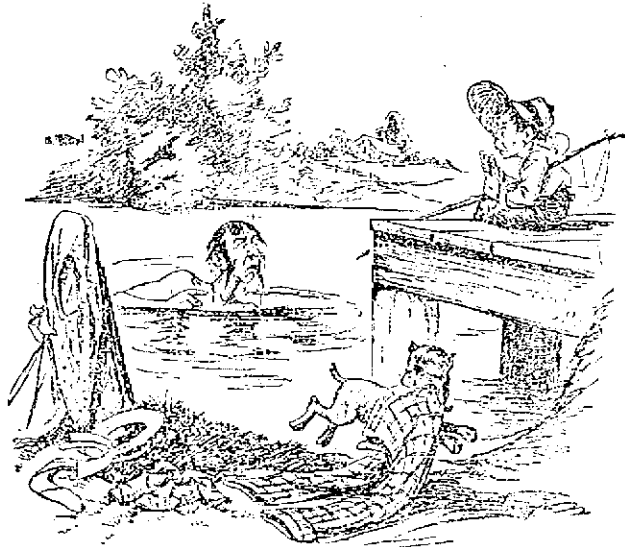

She—It is a woman's lot to suffer in silence.
He—I should put it differently.
She—How, pray?
He—A silent woman suffers a lot.

WHY HE WAS LATE.

"A.H." she cried, pointing an accusing finger at him as he got home shortly after 11 o'clock. "You forgot that this is the anniversary of our wedding. Don't tell me that you didn't. You wouldn't be getting home at this time or right if you hadn't let it pass clean out of your memory."

"You wrong me, Margaret; honest you do. I 'membered it just well as I ever 'membered anything in my life. Honest! Thash reason 'n late. I 'n out tryin' 'fret it. Honest!"

A REASONABLE REDUCTION.

Orme—Wasn't that clever of her?

Jack—How do you mean?

Orme—Why—er—clever to make you believe it!

The Ant's Ancestry.

"WHAT makes Judge Ant so stuck up? Is he any better than the rest of us?"

"Is he? Why, say, the judge is a direct descendant of the ant that the sloopard was sent to."

SEVERAL BREAKS

The Newburyport Police Officers Kept Busy

NEWBURYPORT, July 30.—While Leo Paul was sleeping at the house of relatives in Salisbury, where he is spending the summer, a burglar entered the room about 2 o'clock yesterday morning and went through Mr. Paul's clothing, relieving him of $20 in bills, a gold watch and chain and some change.

The thief was traced by members of the Newburyport and Salisbury police departments and was captured by a railroad employee after eluding the officers for several hours by hiding in a stone quarry at Salisbury beach.

The culprit, when brought to the local police station, was found to be Kenneth Johnson, Mr. Paul's 12-year-old grandson, who resides in this city. The watch and money was recovered.

The break was made with all the stealth of a dachshund. Paul, the youth removing a screen and entering by a lower window.

After the break he fooled his pursuers, who had been aroused, by hiding along the state highway between this city and Salisbury, then, when the trail grew warm, disappeared in a swamp and brought up in a stone quarry, where he remained in hiding until a car came along bound for Salisbury beach. Hearing this, he went to Salisbury beach and was about to spend the day of his life at the resort when his plans were frustrated by being placed under arrest.

For years the police have not had as many burglaries to contend with as they have had this summer. Yesterday morning it was found that burglars had attempted to break into the residence of E. L. Little, the well-known banker, on Tappan street. The Littles are enroute to Europe, and the house has been closed for the summer. It is probable that the thieves were frightened by a burglar alarm.

Tomorrow Afternoon

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THE MEUNIER PROPERTY IN THREE SEPARATE PARCELS, AT PUBLIC AUCTION, TOMORROW.

FIRST PARCEL CONSISTS OF A LOT OF LAND CONTAINING ABOUT 6800 SQ. FT. ON FIRST STREET, DRACUT, MASS., SECOND PARCEL A 2 1/2 STORY HOUSE, BARN, HENNERY, PIGGERIES AND ABOUT 5 1/2 ACRES OF LAND ON HAMPSHIRE STREET IN DRACUT, MASS. THIRD PARCEL, A COTTAGE HOUSE, BARN, HENNERY AND ABOUT 3 1/2 OF AN ACRE OF LAND ON HAMPSHIRE STREET IN DRACUT, MASS.

FIRST PARCEL AT 2 P. M.

Which is located on First street, is but a short distance from McMaunon's, the florists, in what is better known as "Brookside." It has a large frontage on the main road, is a corner lot, electric lines pass by the same, and would make a very nice building site for someone who wanted to locate in the country and get on the five-cent ride.

SECOND PARCEL AT 3 P. M.

Consists of a 2 1/2 story house, large barn, two hen houses, four large piggeries, and about 5 1/2 acres of land. The house is a 2 1/2 story with four rooms on the first floor, four large airy and well lighted chambers on the second floor, and one large unfinished attic. There is a piazza running the full length of the front of the house, and the house is in excellent condition inside and out, and is a substantially built one in every respect. The barn which is built but a few years is 25x30 with an eight-foot cellar, with driveway; there are three cow stalls, three horse stalls, ample room for carriages, and plenty of storage for hay and grain. There is a four foot henhouse divided into five compartments; it is built on a stone wall foundation; the roof is all tarred and it is in excellent shape. Leading from the henhouse is a large hen yard, all wired in; also a large brood house, 5x20. Now, there are two piggeries, 60 feet long 27 feet wide, with a passageway in the centre large enough for a truck to haul feed in. These piggeries are divided into pens, 5x10; also two piggeries, 45 ft. long divided into separate pens 15 ft. each. There is a large open space all fenced in for pigs; there is a running spring through all of the piggeries, so there is plenty of water through all seasons of the year. There are 5 1/2 acres of land, part in pasture and part under cultivation; there are a number of young fruit trees. About one acre of this land is directly in front of the house and is very level and rich soil. Now then, the house sets back 300 feet from the street, the henhouse and barn at a reasonable distance in the rear and the piggeries at the extreme end. Although there have been no pigs kept on this place for the past year, it is property better adapted for the raising of pigs than any place within 10 miles of Lowell.

THIRD PARCEL AT 3.30 P. M.

Consists of a very four-room cottage, small stable, and henhouse, and about 2 1/2 of an acre of land. Now, this little place will have to be seen to be appreciated, and for someone who wants a place in the country they should look this parcel up. The lot has a good frontage on the road and the cottage sets back on large lot about 150 feet from the street. There is a small stable, hen house and large lot and the property is always rented.

Now, the above two parcels which are located on Hampshire street, Dracut, Mass., are just two miles from City Hall, about five minutes' walk from the Lakeview line of cars at the corner, about 15 minutes' walk from the Collinsville and Navy yard mile, and within five minutes' walk of the school house. The property is a good one but a short distance from the old Mass. paper mill. Now, I think the parties who want to get into the country, here are two very good places.

Terms: $50.00 to be paid to the auctioneer on the first parcel as soon as struck off; $200.00 to be paid to the auctioneer on the second parcel as soon as struck off; $150.00 to be paid to the auctioneer on the third parcel as soon as struck off. The fact that the above three parcels are a trustee's sale, they will be positively sold for the highest bid, regardless of weather conditions. P. S.—A good farm, water, and pump will also be sold.

BERNARD F. GATELY, Trustee.

Tomorrow Afternoon, at 4.30 O'Clock

A 2 1/2-STORY HOUSE WITH SLATED ROOF AND ABOUT 3719 SQUARE FEET OF LAND AT 54 RHODORA STREET IN THE HIGHLANDS.

On the premises, regardless of any condition of the weather, I shall offer for sale my 2 1/2-story house and about 3719 square feet of land. The house was built for me about three years ago. My only reason for disposing of it is, I am about to buy a chicken farm. The house, which is 2 1/2 stories, slated roof, has six rooms, reception hall, bath, pantry and back vestibule. On the first floor there is a reception hall, large parlor, dining room with folding doors between the parlor and the dining room, a large stained glass window, kitchen, a small bathroom, and a small closet. On the second floor there are three airy and well lighted chambers and bath, and on the next floor an unfinished attic. There are four windows throughout the house, gas and electric lights, hot and cold water, a sink, a stone sink, furnace heat, open plumbing and remodeled cellar. There is a large piazza on the front and side. The lot is all graded and sodded, has sidewalks, curbing, sewer, and all city conveniences. Now then, for someone who would like a cozy little home in the heart of the city, in the Highlands, where you can get as much country air as if you were ten miles out, it is within a few hundred yards of the beautiful Rhodora road, and in a neighborhood where almost everyone owns his own home, and while you are located in the city, you have the country country air. It is within the number of walks of the new grand old and very convenient to two lines of cars. When you are out for a walk, this property is a gem. From 10 to 15 per cent can be made on a north side property.

Terms: $50.00 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off. Make all inquiries of the auctioneer, whom I have put in full charge.

By order of W. A. BENNETT.

TO HELP INDIANS

Commissioner Valentine Takes Steps

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Brushing aside governmental red tape in the interest of suffering humanity, Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine today took quick and decisive steps to relieve more than 1200 Indians in Wisconsin, who were left without shelter and food as the result of the recent series of cloudbursts in that state. Mr. Valentine acting upon the alarm of Sept. Campbell from the Laysan Indian agency in Wisconsin, telegraphed the latter to take every possible means to relieve the destitute Indians and to also check any possible spread of disease consequent upon the floods.

According to the report of Mr. Campbell the Red river Indian reservation suffered most from the cloudbursts. The Indian village of Ojibwa situated on the banks of a river also suffered heavily. Many Indian families lost all their possessions and have temporarily been deprived of earning a livelihood.

THE WARM WAVE

No Relief Promised for Tomorrow

BOSTON, July 30.—With the temperature rapidly rising greater Boston found itself sweating today in the arms of a hot wave. "Normal summer weather," said the weather bureau officials at the top of the federal building, "warmer tomorrow."

The hot wave has been on its way for several days. Yesterday at 3 o'clock the temperature stood at 89 but at 8 o'clock today the mercury had climbed to the 88 mark and by nine o'clock had risen two points more. The humidity registered at 76.

NIGHT EDITION

THE TARIFF

Report of the Conferees Submitted to Congress Today

WASHINGTON, July 30.—When Majority Leader Payne, head of the tariff conferees on the tariff bill which bears his name, rose in the house of representatives today to present the report of the conferees, the measure had been in conference for just three weeks.

Containing that the bill marks a downward tendency in four percent rates of duty. Mr. Payne presented an exhaustive analysis of the provisions. He undertook to show that there had been a marked decrease in the rates on the necessities of life, while admitting that there had been an increase on some of the luxuries. Probably the most marked reductions throughout any schedule in the bill as a result of the action of the two houses and of the conferees committee are found in the metal schedule. Beginning with a decrease in the rate of iron ore from 10 to 15 cents per ton, there is a general reduction throughout that portion of the bill, pig iron going down from $4 to $2.50 per ton, and scrap iron from $4 to $1. The reduction on many of the items in this schedule amounts to about 50 per cent, and this reduction includes steel rails. There is an increase on structural steel ready for use and also a slight increase on razors, nippers and pliers, and on such new metals as tungsten.

Rough lumber goes down from $2 to $1.25 per thousand feet, with a corresponding reduction in the differential on dressed lumber.

The Cotton Schedule

The wool schedule underwent no change of consequence, but the entire cotton schedule was reconstructed and the phraseology greatly changed in the hope of preventing reductions through decisions by the courts such as have characterized the administration of the Dingley law during latter years. In many instances the rates intended to be imposed by the Dingley law were cut by these decisions, the reduction in some instances being from 60 per cent to 8 per cent ad valorem. It is estimated that the rates fixed by the bill are about 3 per cent higher upon an average than those collected on cottons last year. The rates on cotton hosiery are generally increased.

Duty on Gloves

In the much contested matter of the rate on gloves the high protectionists fail to score. They sought, through an increase made by the house to raise the duty materially above the Dingley figures but were outvoted by the senate and the conferees won, the only change made in the entire schedule being one slight reduction.

The silk schedule was reconstructed with a view of imposing specific rather than ad valorem duties, with the result that the average duty will be somewhat higher under the new law than under the present statute.

Oil cloths and linoleum are heavy cut but otherwise the changes in the flax, hemp and jute provision were not material. A slightly increased duty is provided for hemp, both crude and dressed, and also on certain high grade laces. On linen yarns and matting there is a reduction.

Sugar and Tobacco

Sugar and tobacco duties remain substantially as they are under the Dingley law. The free importation of considerable quantities of both of these articles from the Philippine Islands is permitted, and a material change was made in the internal revenue law by an amendment fixing the tax off of the sale of tobacco in the hands.

There is a uniform increase on spirits, wines and liquors of 15 per cent.

In the agricultural schedule, hops are increased from 12 to 16 cents a pound and there is also an increase on lemons, figs, almonds and pine apples.

Common window glass of the lower sizes in which the imports are heavy, is given a reduction and where changes were made in the chemical schedule there was a general decrease, except upon such articles as fancy soaps and perfumes, which were increased.

The publishers win their fight for lower wood pulp and print paper, the rate on the ordinary newspaper print paper being fixed at $3.75 per ton instead of $5 as under the Dingley law, and on the higher grade of print paper at $3.75 instead of $5. Mechanically ground wood pulp is to come in free of duty instead of paying one-twelfth of a cent a pound as under the Dingley law, but provision is made for a conserving duty in case it becomes necessary to protect this country against Canada's prohibitions upon the exportation of woods to the United States. Hides of cattle come in free and there is a corresponding reduction on leather and leather goods. The house rates are practically retained on sole leather, leather for uppers, boots and shoes, and harness, but the free wide provision is based on the condition that on and after October 1, 1909, sole leather from the hides that are to be admitted free will pay a duty of five per cent, grain, buff and split leather, seven and one-half per cent, and boots and shoes, the upper leather of

HOTTEST DAY YET

Temperature Higher Than on Any July 30th in Many Years

This is the hottest 30th of July in 60 years.

The thermometer stood at 94 in the shade in some places and 92 in others. In the foundries, press rooms and some other workshops a temperature of 108 is reported.

If there was any breeze stirring it didn't get down to this writing, and the fact that the pavers have torn up Merrimack square, letting a lot of gas escape, while the sewer employees have opened Prescott street, Merrimack square today was about the hottest, dustiest and most uncomfortable place that one would encounter in a day's travel.

It is expected that this weather will cause much illness and many heat prostrations of which there were quite a number yesterday and the day previous. The humidity seems even greater today than yesterday and unless a friendly shower comes on tonight Saturday may be even hotter. The weather man, however, says that tomorrow will be cooler.

Firemen Were Welcome

The firemen were welcome visitors in Little Canada last evening, yet there was some complaint because of water getting into the houses. If wetting down process is to be continued it would be a good idea to send an advance agent along to inform the natives what is going to happen, for people will kick, you know.

There are places other than Little Canada, however, that would welcome the cooling influence of the firemen. Other congested districts such as William street, Davidson, Howe, Fenwick, Lakeview avenue, Bent's court and others too numerous to mention.

The sprinkler, the water wagon man, doesn't get around as often as he might and the impression he makes is not very lasting. Where there is a lot of sand and dirt in the street the watering cart does not get out of sight before the water it left behind has been absorbed. The process of wetting down the streets, by the firemen, is a good one and should extend to all congested districts throughout the city.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE

Sum of $12,500 Needed to Complete the Job

An adjourned meeting of the aldermen will be held next Tuesday evening, and the common council will meet in special session. The adjourned meeting last night passed a loan order of $12,500 for the new Washington school. This money is required to pay the finishing touches on the school, more particularly the school grounds.

The urgency of the call for the money was not understood by the common council, and the matter was referred to the committee on appropriations.

This money must be voted before the summer vacation is over, if the school is to be ready for occupancy by the first of September. The special meeting of the council is or will be called for the purpose of taking action in this matter.

Included in the business to be considered by the aldermen will be the appointment of a committee to investigate the Middlesex street paving job. This will be a joint committee and the common council has already appointed its end of it.

Little Canada Park
The park commission is at work on the park in Little Canada. The land, which was presented from the Locks & Canals, will require a deal of filling in but will make a good park or playground when finished.

MANY FACTORIES

Closed Because of the Heat

PROVIDENCE, R. I. July 30.—Today was the hottest day of the season in this city, the thermometer reaching 95. There were numerous cases of heat prostration in the mills, although in no case was anyone taken to a hospital. So unbearable were conditions in the factories in the morning that many of them closed down at noon for the day.

PLASTERERS' STRIKE

BOSTON, July 30.—Business Agent Edward J. McGovern of Plasterers' union No. 10, stated today that the plasterers' strike which began yesterday was progressing favorably. Up to noon, he said, 40 men had returned. This reduces the number on strike to less than 200. The union demands higher wages.

BUSINESS SITUATION

NEW YORK, July 30.—Despatches to R. G. Dun & Co. indicate that the business situation is steadily gaining strength although there is a seasonable slackening of demand in some lines. Substantial orders for future requirements are received in many instances and merchants generally anticipate an act over fall and winter trade. Business shows continued expansion in many wholesale lines at Boston an increased demand being noted for leather and footwear and while reasonable quiet prevails in dry goods the market is in a satisfactory condition for the opening of fall trade. Bank exchanges this week at all leading cities in the United States amount to $2,496,131,453, 15.4 per cent greater than last year.

NAVAL MILITIA

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The battalion of naval militia of the District of Columbia left Washington today for Philadelphia, where they will be joined by the naval militia of that city and Camden, N. J., and the combined force will report for duty to the commandant of the League Island navy yard. The naval militia will go aboard the cruiser Prairie, which will transport them to Provincetown, Mass., where they will participate in the naval maneuvers.

ARMY OF MOORS

Pressing Spain's Exhausted Forces in Morocco

Government Troops Routed at Melilla by the Moors—The Populace in Wildest Indignation—Even the Women Fight Like Demons—Churches and Convents Burned by Furious Mobs

Spain's crisis at home and abroad continues to present many alarming features with Barcelona still in the throes of a revolutionary movement and an army of 30,000 pressing Spain's defeated and exhausted forces in Morocco.

The reports from Barcelona are ominous and from roundabout quarters. But the revolutionary movement appears to have passed its climax. Government troops are now reported to have the upper hand. From many interior points come reports of riot and incendiarism. Spanish warships have come to the relief of the defeated army in Morocco and are reported to be shelling the Moroccan forces. The Spanish medical and headquarters equipment is demoralized by unpreparedness for its gigantic task.

WILD EXCESSES

COMMITTED BY THE INSURGENTS IN SPAIN

CEREBE, France, Spanish Frontier, July 30.—All reports received here from Spain confirm the terrible fury of the war throughout Catalonia. Barcelona they fought behind the barricades with the men urging them to fight to the death. Everywhere they related searches by gendarmes for recruits for the army barring the doors of the houses and firing at the soldiers of the windows. The Casa de las Puercas, the population surrounded and disarmed the civil guard and locked up the officials in the barracks. Not only at Barcelona but throughout the province church property was the special object of the popular fury. Horrible stories are told of the men, the women, the children, the churches and convents were sacked and burned. The inmates of the institutions were driven into the fields to cries of "Down with the church."

At Granollers, 16 miles from Barcelona, the convents were burned. At Amer, fifteen miles from Gerona, the Carmelite convent was looted and burned. The sisters narrowly escaped with their lives.

The Madrid authorities fear the arrival of Alejandro Leroux in Spain who on his way to Europe from Brazil placed himself at the head of the revolution. He holds the workers' organizations in the hollow of his hand. While a member of the Cortes in 1904 Senor Leroux broke with the party because it joined with the Catalans, a union which included the carlists whom he considered as the greatest threat to the maintenance of a monarchist regime and clerical reaction. Last year after a series of bitter articles against the government he was condemned to two years' imprisonment but fled to Brazil. Despite his condemnation of the republicans he was re-elected to parliament at the last election and is now on his way home again to assume leadership. The government has issued orders that he be arrested immediately on landing on Spanish soil.

REVOLUTIONISTS IN BARCELONA REPORTED SPAIN TO HAVE SURRENDERED

MADRID, July 30.—The captain general of Barcelona has telegraphed to the general staff at Madrid that the revolutionists have surrendered and that he is now the master. The number of deaths as a result of the fighting in the streets is very high. Twenty three buildings were destroyed by the artillery. The leaders of the revolt are now being tried by military court martial and summarily executed. There is no train service between Barcelona and Madrid.

MORE FIGHTING REPUTED TO HAVE BROKEN OUT AT FEZ

TANGIER, Morocco, July 29.—All wires received here from Fez say that the armies of the Pretender Ruch and Sultan Mulai Hafid are again fighting. Mulai Hafid's only concern in connection with the Rif troubles is that Spain will present him with a bill for the Spanish campaign.

DON JAIME MAY TRY TO START AN UPRISING

CORRESPONDENTS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO ENTER SPAIN

PARIS, July 30.—Special newspaper correspondents who are trying to enter Spain at both ends of the Pyrenees are being turned back whenever discovered. Those who crossed the frontier from Cerbere have returned to that town. It is learned that Spain's disavowals of intentions of conquest in Africa were made on the specific request of France owing to the circulation of reports that Spain had received a mandate and the right of support from France and England. The French government today telegraphed instructions to the French military commander in Algeria to strengthen the French posts on the Moroccan frontier and to prepare to act energetically in the event of the Moors in French territory attempting to join in the uprising against Spain. General Marline is reported as satisfied that he can meet the situation with the troops now at his disposal and the reinforcements which are now on the way to him.

THE MOORS REFUSED TO APOLOGIZE FOR THE ASSAULT

MADRID, July 30.—The commander of the Spanish forces at Alhucemas on the Moroccan coast today telegraphed to the government that as the Moors had refused to apologize for the assault they made on the fortress yesterday he had resumed shelling their positions.

REPORT DENIED THAT KING EDWARD HAD HAND IN TROUBLE

LONDON, July 30.—The Associated Press is officially authorized to state that there is not a word of truth in the rumor that King Edward is asking France and Germany to intervene in Spain nor in another rumor to the effect that it has been suggested that a mixed force of French, British and German troops should be sent to cooperate with the Spaniards in Morocco. Confidential messages have reached London, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, describing the position of the Spanish forces at Melilla as untenable unless promptly and heavily reinforced.

3000 DESERTERS SAID TO HAVE CROSSED FRONTIER IN FRANCE

HENDAYE, France, July 30.—Spanish deserters continue to flow across the frontier by hundreds. More than 3000 crossed during the last four days. A majority of the men are without money and are awaiting funds from home so as to go to America. A number of suspicious Spaniards are holding secret conferences here. They are believed to be Carlists who are waiting for their leader, Don Jaime, to cross the frontier from France. Continued to page two

REPUBLICANS APPLAUDED

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Back once again to the place where it originated the tariff bill accompanied by the report of the conferees was today up for consideration of the house.

A moment after the house convened Chairman Payne took his seat. He did not wear any too pious an expression. There was a quite full attendance on both sides of the house while the galleries were well filled.

The republicans broke into loud applause when Chairman Payne presented the conference report, a minute or two after the house convened.

Under the rule it went over to tomorrow for printing. In the record. Again the republicans applauded when Mr. Payne said "he hoped to dispose of the report before the house adjourned tomorrow." He did not wish, he said, to cut off debate unnecessarily. No one objected to a motion by him that for the purpose of giving ample time for discussion the house shall meet tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

It was fully expected that Mr. Payne would make an official statement today in connection with the report but he postponed it until tomorrow after having first explained that he had prepared a personal statement. Then he asked to have printed as an official document but owing to objection from the democrats he was unsuccessful in that respect. It is probable that Mr. Clark will prepare a statement showing the democratic view and that the two views will be printed together as one document.

LOSS OF $30,000

Blaze Threatened to Wipe Out Brewer, Me.

RANGOP, Me., July 20.—Fire which threatened to develop into a general conflagration yesterday afternoon destroyed the plant of the Marine Railway and Lumber company in Brewer, together with one of the American Ice company's houses, 200,000 feet of hard pine, three small cottages and the three-masted schooner Rosa Mueller, which lay on the beach.

The fire started from some unknown cause in the icehouse, which was empty and in a dilapidated condition, and fanned by a strong south wind swept over the Marine railway company's property like a tornado. In two hours everything had been burned flat, the loss, Resa Mueller's mast falling with it, enough as the closing incident in an impressive spectacle. The loss is about $26,000, falling chiefly on the Marine P. & L. and Lumber company, which has but $6000 insurance.

way on the Penobscot above Bucksport, the plant that was founded fifty years ago by William McGilvery and has since passed through many hands.

During the progress of the fire showers of blazing clinders swept over Bangor and small fires were started in places but soon extinguished. The city at one time was in considerable danger, as much as the fire apparatus had been sent to Brewer to aid the department.

The Dirigo mill in Brewer caught from sparks, as did the schooner Albert Pharo, lying at the mill wharf. Two small fires were started on the Bangor water front from sparks.

The schooner Rosa Mueller was owned in Bangor. She was built at East Deering in 1862 and registered 241 tons net.

DRANK ACID
MAN SUCCUMBED TO STRAIN OF OVERWORK

EASTHAMPTON, July 30.—Succumbing to the strain of overwork, occasioned by his approaching vacation, Edw. C. Reidel, 45 years old, assistant superintendent of the Nashawannuck Mfg. Co. mills, returned to his home after work last night and committed suicide by drinking anabolic acid.

Willow Dale was the attractive point for about 1500 people yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the annual outing of the local councils of the Royal Arcanum. Heretofore all of the local councils together with North Billerica council united to make the event one of enjoyment for all of the Arcanumites, but this year the affair was held under the auspices of the members of Lovell, Industry, Centerville and Rochambeau councils. Nevertheless, it was a highly successful affair in every particular.

A fine list of sports was carried out during the afternoon, while in the evening there was dancing in the pavilion, music being furnished by the band.

Special cars were run between Minnaback square and the entrance to Willow Dale every few minutes during the early part of the afternoon and the steamer Willow Dale was kept busy between the Dale and the landing near Lakeview. Hundreds of the people, however, walked around rather than wait for a comfortable seat on the Arcadium orchestra.

Shortly after 2 o'clock everyone returned to the ball grounds, which by the way is an apology for a name. The ground, for a man to run around the bases has to go through the diamond, that he would if running in an obstacle race. Owing to the bumps on the diamond, the second baseman seemed the most prominent player in the field for he occupied an exalted position at a high mound. In counting up the number of players the chances are that you will find but eight and if you should care to seek the ninth man you will find that man in a little valley between that mound on which the second baseman stands.

But to come back to the game. It was between Industry and Lowland councils, and the latter gave the Industry council nine a bad trouncing, the score being 11 to 5 at the end of the sixth inning, at which time the game was stopped.

Horace Paradis pitched an excellent game for the winning team, while Ed Carrl at shortstop performed some clever stunts. Councilman "Ed" Kearns was in the box for the vanquished team and though he pitched a good game, there was something wrong which he could not account for. John Ivey was on the receiving end of a battery and worked like a Trojan, but said he preferred having his fingers split than shagging around the bases or in the field. Probably that was the reason that John failed to make a hit.

"Dick" Moser was one of the star performers for industry council teams. He covered first base in a major league would make Harold Danzig turn green with envy. It is understood that "Dick" has received many flattering offers from big league managers to cover the first sack, but has turned them down because he does not want to leave the Spindle City. "Watch the watchmaker" was the slogan during the progress of the game and those who watched him were well repaid for sitting under the scorching rays of Old Sol.

The features of the game will be found in the following box score:

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Arthur Laporte and Miss Louise Michael were married Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's church, where a nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Lacombe, O. M. I. Messrs. Alexandre Michael and Mr. Laporte were the witnesses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, 28 Austin street. Mr. and Mrs. Laporte leave the city for

"I am a man seventy years old. My hands were very sore and cracked open on the inside for over a year. My large sores would crack open and bleed, itch, burn and ache so that I could not sleep and could do no work. They were so bad that I could not dress myself in the morning. They would bleed and the blood dropped on the floor. I called on two doctors, but they did me no good. I could get nothing to do my own good till I got the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. About a year ago my daughter got a cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura ointment and some cork from the time I began to use them my hands were all healed up and they have not been a bother since. I could not be without the Cuticura Remedies."

They also cured a bad sore on the back of my neck and a skin eruption, and they think very highly of the Cuticura Remedies. John W. Hasty, No. 22, Longham, N. H., Mar. 5 and Apr. 11, 1897"

PROVIDENCE, July 26.—James Taylor, alias Schneider, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and according to his own statement, a former 16 year convict at Sing Sing prison, was held on housebreaking job in the district court yesterday. He pleaded guilty, and heavy bonds were fixed for his appearance before the September grand jury.

Taylor is dying from consumption. He says he would have made no confession regarding his career and operations but that he was ready to go to the prison hospital at Cranston.

Taylor says his forte was in losing the dwellings of the wealthy in the daytime, particularly afterwards. He says he robbed a number in this city and Pawtucket during the present month, among them being Wm. H. Hoole, 125 Governor street; Walter Kinsey, 104 Eagle avenue; Walter S. Davis, 115 Somerset; Frederick G. Rice, 125 Hamilton street; Ernest C. Baker, Washington street, this city, and several in Pawtucket and East Providence.

It was alleged against Taylor, who graduated in the course of Taylor, for it was the case, as charged by John H. Forest, a Boston Police officer, Taylor claims New York after a long residence.

The prisoner's release for treatment to the afternoon is denied. The men are away, the children at play and the women bargain hunters.

Young Married Woman Hired Out as a Servant

NEW YORK, July 30.—Mrs. Theresa Smith, 22 years old and pretty, was found guilty of grand larceny in the court of general sessions yesterday, and was remanded to the Tombs for sentence.

"You're," said Justice Ross, to the young woman, "is one of the most remarkable cases that has ever come before me. Despite your tender years and the fact that you are a mother of an infant, I believe you are a criminal at heart and beyond redemption. If you do not make restitution of the thirty or forty thousand dollars worth of jewelry you have stolen from your home, I will give you the full term of the law and sentence you to the penitentiary for ten years."

The trial revealed that the young woman had robbed scores of persons by hiring out as a servant. After she had secured her best—always jewelry—she would return to her home at 1025 Bedford Road and there emment friends in luxuriously furnished apartments. In asking for employment she invariably named her wages as $18 a month, while in her own home she employed a maid to whom she paid $22.

The police estimate that her stealings will amount to fully $40,000.

Husband Plays the Raucous
The woman's husband, dressed in the height of fashion, said on the witness stand that he was a painter, out of work, but under cross questioning of the district attorney, Whiteside admitted that he had visited Baltimore 15 or 20 times during the race meeting there and had bet heavily on the horses.

Mrs. Smith denied she had been guilty of robbery, but when asked why she had hired out for $18 a month and paid a maid $22 her sole reply was:

"I had a quarrel with my husband and decided to leave him. I had to employ a maid to care for my baby girl, which was but two months and a half old."

She would not say where she got the money.

HARRY K. THAW

Proved a Match for Attorney Jerome

WHITE PLAINS, July 30.—Although District Attorney Jerome announced at the close of yesterday's session of the Thaw sanity hearing that he was "through" with Harry Thaw he revealed him to the stand this morning. The "two or three" questions which Jerome remarked yesterday he might still have for the relation proved to be a long string.

The district attorney started his examination along the line that thus far he yielded his side the best results. He proved to Thaw's own ideas of his mental condition and contrasted his answers with those of the 11 alienists who at various times pronounced him insane. Thaw clung to his oft-repeated phrase that he was "not medically insane, although he might have been legally so when he killed White."

Jerome was primed with the various opinions of the experts but Thaw seemed to have them just as accurate as he fixed in his mind and once or twice corrected the prosecutor. He admitted that some of the physicians may have been right, others were mistaken. One, he declared, "willfully presented a distorted verdict."

The courtroom was even warmer than yesterday and Thaw had worked with his counsel until 10:10 last night examining a bundle of Jerome's documentary evidence which he had to have to explain today. Nevertheless, he presented the air of a man whose task is over. His replies exhibited a calm confidence that showed that he was satisfied with his previous showing and sure that he was a match for the district attorney.

Thaw asked for the reports of several alleged inconsistencies in their testimony.

"Well," began Jerome, "there were all these trained alienists who thought you were insane."

"Not all of them," interrupted Thaw. "I don't think that Dr. Hamilton and Dr. White did."

Thaw said that the alienists thought he suffered from defective reason and Jerome jumped at the chance.

"What did they mean by defective reason?"

"I think the term explains itself."

"Explain it," insisted Jerome, "what do you think it means?"

Thaw looked it over and was unable to find words to frame his reply.

He seemed relieved when Jerome, directed to the decision of Judge Morschauser before whom Thaw made his first effort for liberty from Matteawan.

"Didn't Judge Morschauser declare that you are hopelessly insane?"

"No," said Thaw. "He held that I had not proved myself sane."

Mr. Morschauser asked a word with his client, and Jerome protested.

"This kind of thing has gone on from the first. This man gets up in the air and his counsel interprets to give him a chance to recover himself."

"Whatever Judge Morschauser may have said in his decision," began Thaw, "I know that he thinks that I am perfectly sane, for I talked with him two weeks ago and he said so."

"Explain what you mean when you say you are 'legally sane,'" repeated Mr. Jerome.

"I am of the same opinion as the jury and all the medical men who have examined me in the last three years are, and as I know Judge Morschauser is, that I am now sane and there is no danger of the recurrence of my trouble."

"Do you think you were legally insane when you killed White?"

"That is my best opinion, but I don't know."

"What do you mean by 'I don't know'?"

"Defective reason," replied Thaw.

"What is defective reason?"

Thaw pondered it and then answered: "Not being responsible for my acts."

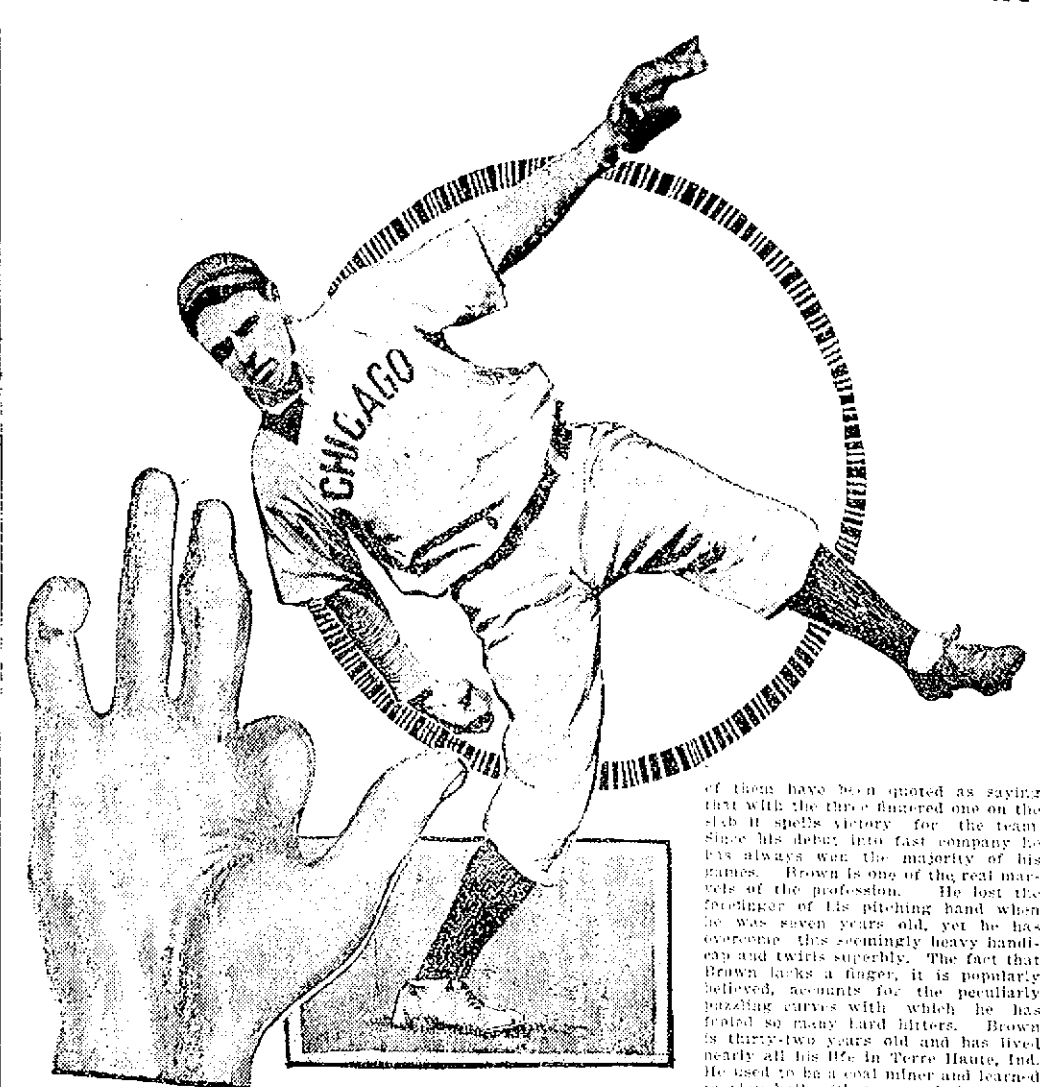

Speaking of the alienists the witness remarked: "You can't find them. They are going their last to make out a case for me. They were under such hard for me."

The district attorney's efforts switched to the testimony of Dr. Charles Harridge and Susan Martin. They denied that he had ever noted points at the latter's house.

"Do you think you were innocent or guilty when you killed White?" asked Jerome, calmly parading the question.

Thaw made no reply.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pottle, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

For a man adjudged insane, Harry K. Thaw shows considerable rationality. His brain storm is over. His outbreak of temper has subsided and will probably be duly restrained in the future even though he be set free without further ceremony.

THE SAFER PARACHUTE.

That performance of Dr. S. S. Stowell in parachuting his balloon so that he dropped with it from a height of two miles is a more safe and sensible method of making a parachute jump than the usual way of cutting loose from the balloon and taking chances with a closed parachute that may not open.

TOURING ON THE AUTO COMPANIES.

These trips to Hartford, Buffalo and other cities made by Mayor Brown, Chief Hosmer and Purchasing Agent MacKenzie, were personally conducted by the mayor for the purpose of investigating automobiles suitable for fire service or other purposes. These tours do not cost the city anything directly, but they place those who accept the hospitality, if not the city, under an obligation to the entertaining company. The work of investigating the merits of fire apparatus belongs to Chief Hosmer and he can be safely entrusted to do the business honestly without any assistance or supervision.

SUBORDINATES SUFFER, MAGNATES GO FREE.

The sincerity or lack of sincerity on the part of the federal authorities will be shown in the prosecution of the sugar trust magnates for lying that has been admitted to the extent of $2,000,000 which has been paid over by the trust.

Indictments are pending against six of the directors not in connection with the lying operations but in connection with the absorption of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company. A couple of subordinate employees have been arrested for the larceny charge and they are the ones who will be punished if any convictions follow on that indictment. It is not usual to let a burglar or embezzler off when he returns the booty. Why make an exception in case of the sugar trust magnates? A jail sentence would have a good effect. The fact that few trust magnates have to suffer the legal penalty of their offenses shows that the federal government does not mean to press them on such charges.

The subordinates are punished for the offenses of the trust directors, the manipulators of high finance, stock speculators and the beneficiaries of an oppressive tariff.

THE LOCKS AND CANALS COMPANY VS. THE CITY.

The Locks and Canals company is placed in a very bad light before this community in relation to the land deal with Oscar Deziel on the banks of the canal on Pawtucket street. The company, as already explained, has sold a piece of land at the corner of Pawtucket and Moody streets for building purposes. The sale, we are informed, was negotiated by Alderman Badger, an official of the company. Being an alderman it was his duty to consider the interests of the city in the premises, but such an idea apparently was foreign to his purpose.

The land in question lying as it does in the angle formed by the junction of the two streets is so situated that it built upon the view of one of the most beautiful landscapes to be found anywhere will be seriously marred. All this has been freely discussed, but what we wish to remark is, that the alderman who would so injure the good looks of a street or of a number of streets in order to benefit his company hardly deserves the confidence of the public.

When the advocates of the city beautiful find a city official practicing such sordid methods, it is no wonder they feel discouraged if not disgusted. The land, it is alleged, was offered to the city for park purposes. Perhaps it was; but if the city did not then see fit to accept it, that did not quite justify the Locks and Canals company in selling the land as a site for three big tenement blocks. And now as to the price, quoted at 75 cents a foot, the purchaser says he cannot afford to sell it to the city at less than a dollar a foot. He has a right to do as he pleases with the land having bought it. So, too, the Locks and Canals company has a right to do as it pleases with its land.

But it should not be forgotten that the city has some rights left and that its sovereignty has not been entirely absorbed by the Locks and Canals company. If the company hereafter is to show such disregard for the city's interests the city in turn may be more exacting with the company, and this to our mind would be the proper course to adopt in view of the circumstances. It is high time for the city council so to improve the building laws that any outrage against the city beautiful or to the detriment of surrounding property will be prohibited. It seems that while the company can do a great deal for the city it is so desirous and while it has recently favored the city in a grant of river front land on Ann street for a public park, yet in some respects its policy is lacking in public spirit, narrow and short-sighted.

As for the gentleman who is to build upon the land in question, he is wholly within his rights, of course, but when he shall have completed his three six-story blocks let us hope he will not object to an assessment of a dollar a foot for the land above as this is the price at which he offered to sell it to the city.

It may not be very long until the Locks and Canals company comes before the city as a petitioner for some privileges. The ship will then be on the other foot, and if it pleases the company may easily divine the reason why. Furthermore we do not believe that Alderman Badger has increased his popularity with the people of Lowell by negotiating a sale of land for building projects that is generally admitted to be contrary to enlightened public policy. The fact is, that Alderman Badger and the Locks and Canals company rather than Oscar Deziel will be held responsible in the public mind for the erection of buildings that will stand as a blot upon one of the most beautiful outlooks in our city and we might say in New England.

SEEN AND HEARD

A good time isn't strictly a success unless its memories are pleasant. There are many innocent jamborees which may be freely indulged in, and when you think of them, in later days, you won't spit your teeth. A man may have a lot of real fun without being a milkop. But the kind of fun that is born of long cold bottles is a deflection. You feel pretty gay while you are pouring fuel oil upon the troubled waters of your interior, but when the O-be joyful mood passes, after a long sleep, you are really surprised to note how tough you can feel, and how much you can hate yourself. The glow didn't last long, but the remorse clings to you like a brother. When you think of all the fool things you said and did, you are half inclined to take an axe and blow out your brains with it, but of course that will do no good. The worst of it is that you will never be able to forget it. You may forget a lot of agreeable things, but the disagreeable and humiliating things stick to your memory like cockleburrs to a bird's whiskers. And you will never have as good an opinion of yourself again, is that sort of a good time worth while?—Exchange.

The Kennebec Journal passes a remark that while sleeping with the window open doesn't lead to an early demise, the benefits are doubtful when the air is laden with smoke and soot from passing railroad trains.

J. M. Barrie, author of "The Little Minister," "Peter Pan" and other works and plays, was discussing clubs and club life at a dinner party the other day and during the discussion told a story that throws a new light on the presumably delightful feature of being a clubman. He says that he had been elected a member of one of London's fashionable clubs and had not permitted much time to elapse after being formally notified of the fact before he went to the club for dinner. "Of course," he said, "I first strolled around looking for the smoking room, thinking that I might find some of my friends there. I did not find the room, however, and returned to the hall, where I accosted an old man with long white hair. He seemed to be reading as intently about the place as I was, but I stopped him to ask if he could tell me where the smoking room was. His reply was most cordial. 'I shall be glad to direct you there,' he said, and he proceeded to do so. There was no one in the room, however, and so we returned to the hall, where I thanked the old man for his courtesy. 'No thanks are due me,' he replied courteously. And then he added, 'I should be very glad to have you take dinner with me.' But, my dear sir, I replied, 'you have been too kind to me already. I can not think of imposing myself upon you in this manner.' The old man smiled, 'I assure yourself, I insist,' he exclaimed, 'exactly, throwing his arms about me. 'Why, sir, it is no such thing. On the contrary, you will be doing me the greatest favor in the world by accepting my invitation. The fact is, sir, that I have belonged to this club for thirty years and you are the first member who has ever spoken to me.' Mr. Barrie adds that he immediately accepted the invitation and that he had a most pleasant evening with the old man.

MANY ATTRACTIONS

PLANNED FOR K. OF C. BASKET PICNIC

The committee in charge of the basket picnic of the Knights of Columbus, which is to be held at the Genoa club on Aug. 5th, met last evening and completed arrangements. The sports will include a baseball game between the married and single men of the council, a baseball game for ladies, 100 yards dash, a ladies' race, and a flower hunt for the children. Coins ranging from five cents to one dollar will be thrown into a pile of flour and the children will be turned loose on the pile. Paul Preen's celebrated serio-comic orchestra has consented to give one of its rare programs, while there will also be music and dancing on the green. The picnic is for members, their families and lady friends only.

GREAT AUTO RACES

On the Card at Old Brighton
Beach - Race Track

NEW YORK, July 30.—The old Brighton beach race track which was abandoned over a year ago has been reconstructed into a one mile circuit, which beginning one hour after noon today the fastest autos will be sent tearing around in a carnival of speed and endurance races which promises to eclipse anything in the speed line ever attempted on an enclosed track in this country. The technical committee of the motor racing association has arranged four races and each has received a generous number of entries. The racing track has been banked sufficiently to admit of the cars going at the highest speed attainable and the results are expected.

The principal event on the program is a 24-hour race which will be international in character. Eight cars are entered, each one manned by an expert driver and mechanic for this contest which unlike all its predecessors in this vicinity will be a continuous grind from start to finish with no let up or sleep. This race will start tonight at or near 9 o'clock as possible so that the result will be known by 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The conditions and entries for this event with the names of the drivers are as follows:

Twenty-four hour race (restricted to 15 entries) open to all stock cars (American Automobile Association definition) selling at $2500 or over; first prize $100; second prize $50; third prize $20; fourth prize $10; fifth prize $5.

Stanley, Robertson and Poole, Flat, De Palma and Parker, Acme, Parole and Van Tine, Stearns, Marquis and Green, Bamber, Dismore and Land, Loeber, Mulford and Cole, Haynes, Swedberg and Looney, Palmer, Singer, Lescuit and Howland.

Beginning at 1:30 p. m. there will be a series of shorter races, a five foot for all, a one mile time trial free for all, and the Brighton beach Marathon 100 miles open to cars in A. A. class for which the first prize will be $1250.

The management has arranged a system of service building which makes the cars discernable at all parts of the course.

NO. CHELMSFORD

ST. JOHN'S PICNIC TAKES PLACE TOMORROW AT NABNASSETT

Tomorrow will be a red letter day in the annals of the parishioners of St. John's church, a day upon which nearly all the members of this important and extensive parish assemble together and cast everything else aside in order to have an afternoon and evening of genuine fun and pleasure. In brief, it will be "Picnic Day". As in former years, Nabasset will be the scene of festivities, and so popular has this annual outing become among residents and those of surrounding districts, that no more suitable place could be selected to accommodate the large crowds who make it a point to be present. Judging by the interest taken in this year's arrangements, combined with the up-to-date program of attractions gotten up for the occasion, this year's attendance promises to eclipse those of former years. With a ball game between Forge Village and Brookside of the Stony Brook league, a quartet match having for rivals members of Court Wainwright, M. C. O. P. and St. John's T. A. Society, and a good list of other events, followed by outdoor sports will have ample opportunity to revel in the favorite pastime. A deal of fun and merriment will be handed to those who will make it a point to take in the various midway attractions, which promises to surpass all others in every respect, while lovers of terpsichorean art will be able to dance to their heart's content to the music of the Colonial orchestra.

Ice cream and refreshments booths with attendants only two anxious to serve you will enable the crowd to keep cool in awaiting the call for supper. The matron, Mrs. M. Welch, and her chief assistant, Miss Jessie McCabe, warrant that none better could be obtained for the money—and they ought to know.

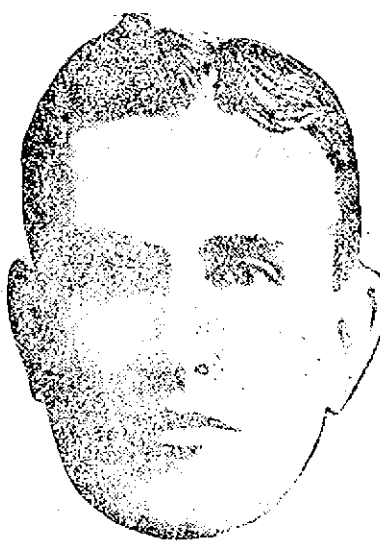

This year's innovation, the family contest, for which a suitable prize will be given to the family having the largest number of members present by the Rev. Father Scholten, will certainly prove a good draw, as it has kept a good many guessing as to the ultimate lucky winner. Had the contest been confined to parishioners only, the result could probably have been easily forecasted, but, open to all, there is the possibility of a proverbial "dark horse" stepping in and carrying off the prize, which makes the competition all the more exciting. Judging by the great number of family clothes hanging out these last few days, getting ready for the occasion, the number of children competing tomorrow will be legion. As some of the mothers exclaim, this week has been a continual wash day. Very likely the reverend father did not foresee the far-reaching effect of his gift, and will have more than his hands full in keeping tally of the many families contesting for the prize.

From 12 o'clock noon and every half hour thereafter, there will be a service of cars from North Chelmsford to the grove, giving an opportunity to Lowell and other patrons to make good connections. If the weather is at hot as it has been during the past week, we advise all those interested to speed to the pine shades of lovely Nabasset tomorrow afternoon, get cooled off, and at the same time spend a most enjoyable time.

While in the act of jumping out of a moving vehicle in North Chelmsford last evening, a young man named Paul Leonard was hurt, spraining his ankle. He had to be taken to his residence on Holmes street, where the injured foot was attended.

PRUDENTIAL CO. OUTING

Serious Accident Mars a Fine Day's Pleasure

The agents of the local office of the Prudential Life Insurance company, with guests from the Manchester office, held a delightful outing at Richardson's farm yesterday, and the day's fun was almost at a close when a sad accident occurred which completely marred the pleasure of the day. Popular "Jack" Carroll, the Y. M. C. I. minstrel, who had been the life of the party during the earlier part of the day, was the victim of the accident, sustaining a broken leg. Mr. Carroll, with a partner, was competing in the three-legged race, and as they were running at top speed his partner tripped and fell carrying Mr. Carroll with him in such a manner as to break his leg. Supt. Frank of the Manchester office who had come to the picnic from Manchester, in his auto, took the injured man in the auto to St. John's hospital this city, and the festivities were immediately declared at an end.

The party went out on a special electric at 8:30 and upon arrival a ball game was played between the Ordinaries and the Industrials, the Ordinaries winning by a score of 13 to 12. The teams lined up as follows: Ordinaries: Kitchen, c; Ward, 2b; Cox, p; Hanson, lf; Sullivan, 1b; Chapman, cf; W. Johnson, 3b; Kilpatrick, ss; E. Hart, rf.

Industrials: Carroll, lf; McEnany, ss; Golden, 1b; Bruce, cf; O'Connor, c; Lumpkin, 3b; Murphy, rf; Lindsay, 2b; Milton E. Corey, umpire. A feature of the game was Counsellman Kilpatrick's throw to the plate. The ball went wide and hit St. Glida between the eastern and the western lights "and he made for him a blue eye, chess!"

At 2 o'clock the party sat down to dinner served by Caterer Henderson, after which all were called to order by Thomas Lynch who after words of welcome for the special guests, as only Tommy can reel them off, called on Supt. A. E. Boissonault under whose administration the local office is enjoying unprecedented success. Supt. Boissonault stated at the outset that any one caught talking business would be introduced to the point.

Supt. Frank of the Manchester office was warmly welcomed as he was introduced and he made a hit by giving

Tomorrow Afternoon

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THE MEUNIER PROPERTY IN THREE SEPARATE PARCELS, AT PUBLIC AUCTION, TOMORROW.

FIRST PARCEL CONSISTS OF A LOT OF LAND CONTAINING ABOUT 6800 SQ. FT. ON FIRST STREET, DRACUT, MASS., SECOND PARCEL A 2 1/2 STORY HOUSE, BARN, HENNERY, PIGGERIES AND ABOUT 5 1/2 ACRES OF LAND ON HAMPSON STREET IN DRACUT, MASS. THIRD PARCEL, A COTTAGE HOUSE, BARN, HENNERY AND ABOUT 3/4 OF AN ACRE OF LAND ON HAMPSON STREET IN DRACUT, MASS.

FIRST PARCEL AT 2 P. M.

Which is located on First street, is but a short distance from McMannon's, the florists, in what is better known as "Brookside." It has a large frontage on the main road, is a corner lot, electricity pass by the same, and would make a very nice building site for someone who wanted to locate in the country and get on the five-cent ride.

SECOND PARCEL AT 3 P. M.

Consists of a 2 1/2 story house, large barn, two hen houses, four large piggeries, and about 5 1/2 acres of land. The house is a 2 1/2 story with four rooms on the first floor, four large airy and well lighted chambers on the second floor, and one large unfinished attic. The house is in excellent condition inside and out, and is a substantially built one in every respect. The barn which is built but a few years is 37x39 with an eight-foot cellar, with driveway; there are three cow stalls, three horse stalls, ample room for carriages, and plenty of storage for hay and grain. There is a 50 foot hennerly divided into five compartments; it is built on a stone wall foundation; the roof is all tarred and it is in excellent shape. Leading from the hennerly is a large hen yard, all wired in; also a large brood house, 8x20. Now, there are two piggeries, 60x100 long 27 feet wide, with a passageway in the centre large enough for a truck to haul feed in. These piggeries are divided into pens, 5x10; also two piggeries, 45 ft. long divided into separate pens 15 ft. each. There is a large open space all fenced in for pigs; there is a running spring through part of the piggeries, so there is plenty of water through all seasons of the year. There are 5 1/2 acres of land, part in pasture and part under cultivation; there are a number of young fruit trees, about one and a half acres of land in front of the house and is very level and rich soil. Now then, the house sets back 300 feet from the street, the hennerly and barn at a reasonable distance in the rear and the piggeries at the extreme end. Although there have been no pigs kept on this place for the past year, it is properly better adapted for the raising of pigs than any place within 10 miles of Lowell.

THIRD PARCEL AT 3:30 P. M.

Consists of a cozy four-room cottage, small stable, and hennerly, and about 1/2 of an acre of land. Now, this little place will have to be seen to be appreciated, and for someone who wants a place in the country they should look this parcel up. The tract alone on this place will pay a large interest on the investment. The lot has a good frontage on the road and the cottage sets back on high land about 150 feet from the street. There is a small stable, hen house and large hen yard, and the property is always rented.

Now, the above two parcels which are located on Haddam street, Dracut, Mass., are just two miles from City hall, about five minutes' walk from the Lakeview line of cars at Goodhue corner, about 15 minutes' walk from the Collinsville and Navy yard mills, and within five minutes' walk of the school house. The property is located but a short distance from the old Bassett paper mill. Now, I think, for parties who want to get into the country, here are two very good parcels.

Terms: $350 to be paid to the auctioneer on the first parcel as soon as struck off; $350 to be paid to the auctioneer on the second parcel as soon as struck off; $150 to be paid to the auctioneer on the third parcel as soon as struck off. The fact that the above three parcels are a trustee's sale, they will be positively sold for the highest bid, regardless of weather conditions.

P. S.—A good farm wagon and pump will also be sold.

By order of BERNARD F. GATELY, Trustee.

Tomorrow Afternoon, at 4.30 O'Clock

A 2 1/2-STORY HOUSE WITH SLATED ROOF AND ABOUT 3719 SQUARE FEET OF LAND AT 54 RHODORA STREET IN THE HIGHLANDS.

On the premises, regardless of any condition of the weather, I shall offer for sale my 2 1/2-story house and about 3719 square feet of land. The house was built for me about three years ago. My only reason for disposing of it is, I am about to buy a chicken farm. The house, which is 2 1/2 stories, slated roof, has six rooms, reception hall, bath, pantry and back vestibule. On the first floor there is a reception hall, large parlor, dining room with folding doors between the parlor and dining room, a large stained glass window, kitchen, pantry and back vestibule. On the second floor there are three airy and well lighted chambers and bath, and on the next floor an unfinished attic. There are hard wood floors throughout the house, gas and electric lights, hot and cold water, set tubs, soapstone sink, furnace heat, open plumbing and cemented cellar. There is a large piazza on the front and side. The lot is all graded and settled, has sidewalks, curbing, sewer, and all city conveniences. Now then, for someone who would like a cozy little home in the heart of the city, in the Highlands, where you can get as much country air as if you were five miles out. It is within a few hundred yards of the beautiful Bagshaw residence, and in a neighborhood where almost everyone owns his own home, and while you are located in the city, you have the beautiful country scenery. It is within five minutes' walk of the new grammar school and very convenient to two lines of cars. When you are out for a walk, look this property up. From 50 to 75 per cent. can remain on a mortgage at 2 per cent.

Terms: $350 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off. Make all inquiries of the auctioneer when I have left in full charge.

By order of W. J. BENOIT.

SEVERAL BREAKS

The Newburyport Police Officers Kept Busy

NEWBURYPORT, July 30.—While Leo Paul was sleeping at the house of relatives in Salisbury, where he is spending the summer, a burglar entered the room about 5 o'clock yesterday morning and went through Mr. Paul's clothing, relieving him of $30 in bills, a gold watch and chain and some change.

The thief was traced by members of the Newburyport and Salisbury police departments and was captured by a railroad employe after eluding the officers for several hours by hiding in a stone quarry at Salisbury beach.

The culprit, when brought to the local police station, was found to be Kenneth Johnson, Mr. Paul's 12-year-old grandson, who resides in this city. The watch and money was recovered. The break was made with all the stealth of a dillie of Fagin, the youth removing a screen and entering by a lower window.

After the break he fooled his pursuers, who had been aroused, by hiking along the state highway between this city and Salisbury, then, when the trail grew warm, disappeared in a swamp and brought up in a stone quarry, where he remained in hiding until a car came along bound for Salisbury beach. Hearing this, he went to Salisbury beach and was about to spend the day of his life at this resort when his plans were frustrated by being placed under arrest.

For years the police have not had as many burglaries to contend with as they have had this summer. Yesterday morning it was found that burglars had attempted to break into the residence of E. H. Little, the well-known banker, on Toppan street. The Littles are enroute to Europe, and the house has been closed for the summer. It is probable that the thieves were frightened by a burglar alarm.

Wednesday night burglars entered Treback's shoe store on Merrimack street and took away eight pairs of shoes, 50 pairs of rubber heels and leather soles.

After the break the burglars made an attempt to burn the building, but a lighted newspaper evidently went out without setting fire to anything else.

TO HELP INDIANS

Commissioner Valentine Takes Steps

WASHINGTON, July 30. Brushing aside governmental red tape in the interest of suffering humanity, Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine today took quick and decisive steps to relieve more than 1500 Indians in Wisconsin, who were left without shelter and food as the result of the recent series of cloudbursts in that state. Mr. Valentine acting upon the alarm of Supt. Campbell from the Lapointe Indian agency in Wisconsin, telegraphed the latter to take every possible means to relieve the destitute Indians and to also check any possible spread of disease consequent upon the floods.

According to the report of Mr. Campbell the Bad River Indian reservation suffered most from the cloudbursts. The Indian village of Ojagah situated on the banks of a river also suffered heavily. Many Indian families lost all their possessions and have temporarily been deprived of earning a livelihood.

THE WARM WAVE

No Relief Promised for Tomorrow

BOSTON, July 30.—With the temperature rapidly rising greater Boston found itself sweating today in the arms of a hot wave. "Normal summer weather" said the weather bureau officials at the top of the federal building, "warmer tomorrow."

The hot wave has been on its way for several days. Yesterday at 9 o'clock the temperature stood at 80 but at 8 o'clock today the mercury had climbed to the 88 mark and by nine o'clock had risen two points more. The humidity registered at 75.

BOSTON, July 30.—Guilty was the verdict rendered by Judge Frederick Lodge to the U. S. district court today in the case of Elisha Greenwood the Boston attorney charged with contempt of court. A fine of $200 was imposed.

Greenwood's trial followed the filing of eight specific allegations of contempt by United States District Attorney Thayer. It was claimed that during the conduct of a bankruptcy hearing Greenwood's language and conduct were such as to be in contempt of court.

COURT DECIDES

THAT DORA GETTEL MAY KEEP HER SON

PROVIDENCE, July 30.—Judge Baker in the superior court yesterday refused to grant the petition of Travilla C. Gettel for a writ of habeas corpus to regain possession of his three year old boy from the child's mother, Dora Gettel. Judge Baker said that the mother should be allowed to retain the custody of the child, with certain restrictions to be specified in the decree to be entered in Newport, where the parties are members of the summer colony.

The parents are little more than children themselves, and the wife claimed that she was obliged to leave her husband because he failed to provide sufficient food and other necessities for her and the child. David W. Gettel, a manufacturer of Philadelphia, is the father of the young husband and is taking much interest in the fight for Eugene. The petitioner claims that the child was taken by the mother and brought to Newport last month.
